MEDINA ILMU
Mencerdaskan Generasi Bangsa

Pada suatu hari di tengah hutan rimba, terdengar suara singa si raja hutan mengeram kesakitan, ternyata singa itu sudah tua sehingga sering sakit-sakitan. Semua penghuni hutan jadi gelisah melihatnya.

Once up a time everyone in the forest heard agony scream that came from the old painful lion. All forest members were worried see him.

Seisi penghuni hutan pun berkumpul untuk pemilihan raja hutan yang baru, semuanya berdiskusi. Yang paling pertama dipilih adalah si harimau, tetapi si harimau menolaknya dengan alasan takut sama manusia.

All forest members gathered to make election for new jungle king. They had discussion and the first one that had been chosen was the tiger, however the tiger refused because of he was affraid with human.

“Jika harimau tidak mau, kalau begitu kau badak, karena kau kuat,” kata beruang yang bertindak sebagai hakim.
“Tidak-tidak aku tidak mau, penglihatanku kurang baik, aku sering sekali menabrak pohon,” ujar si badak.

“If tiger didn’t want, what didn’t a rhinoceros? As he was very strong” asked the bear as the judge. “No I didn’t want! My eyesight was pretty worse, i often hit the tree,” answered the rhino.

“Mungkin yang pantas kau saja gajah yang jadi raja, karena badanmu paling besar di sini,” kata beruang lagi. “Gerakan tubuhku sangat lambat, dan aku pun tidak bisa berkelahi,” sahut si gajah.

“Perhaps you were proper as a king due to you were the biggest one here,” said the bear again. “My movement was very slow and even I couldn’t fight,” elephant responded.

“Mungkin hari ini kita cukupkan sampai di sini, kita akan lanjut besok,” kata beruang. Saat semua binatang akan bubar tiba-tiba dari arah belakang seekor kera berteriak dan berkata “Tunggu! Bagaimana jika manusia saja yang menjadi raja? Manusia kan pintar.”

“Maybe today we had enough discussion. We would continue it tomorrow,” said the bear. When the animals would leave the discussion, suddenly from behind a monkey shouted and said, “Wait! What would if human became a king? They were smart!”

“Tidak mungkin, karena manusia tidak tinggal di hutan,” jawab si beruang. “Kalau begitu coba lihat aku, aku mirip dengan manusia, dan cocok menjadi raja kan?” ujar si kera. Dan setelah berdiskusi, akhirnya disepakati kalau kera yang akan menjadi raja hutan yang baru.

“Impossible! They didn’t live in the forest” said the bear.
“then looked at me! I was very simmiliar to human. So It might be suitable to be a king, right?” and after finishing the discussion, the monkey had been choosen as the new king in the forest.

Tapi setelah kera menjadi raja, ternyata tingkah lakunya sama sekali tidak seperti seorang raja. Kerja si kera hanya bermalas-malasan. Binatang yang lain pun merasa kesal, dan yang paling kesal terhadap kera adalah si musang.

Unfortunately after the monkey became the king officially, he didn't behave like a king. Monkey was very. Other animals felt annoyed and the most annoyed one was the weasel.

“Bagaimana si kera bisa menyamakan dirinya dengan manusia?” pikir si musang. “Badannya memang ada kesamaan, tapi dia bodoh!” lanjut si musang. Setelah lama berpikir, akhirnya si musang pun mendapatkan ide.

“How could the monkey made him as same as the human?” weasel thought. “He might had simmiliar body yet he was dumb,” weasel continued. After took long time, finally the civet got an idea.

Suatu hari, si musang pun menghadap raja, dia hendak mengajak ke sebuah tempat yang terdapat banyak sekali makanan. Raja kera pun senang dan dia bersedia ikut dengan si musang.

One day, the weasel met the king and he would to invite the king to a place where fulfill with a lot of meal. Monkey king really wanted to follow the weasel with pleasure.

Di dalam hutan rimba, terlihat onggokan buah-buahan kesukaan kera. Karena sifatnya yang tamak, kera langsung menyergap buah-buahan kesukaannya.

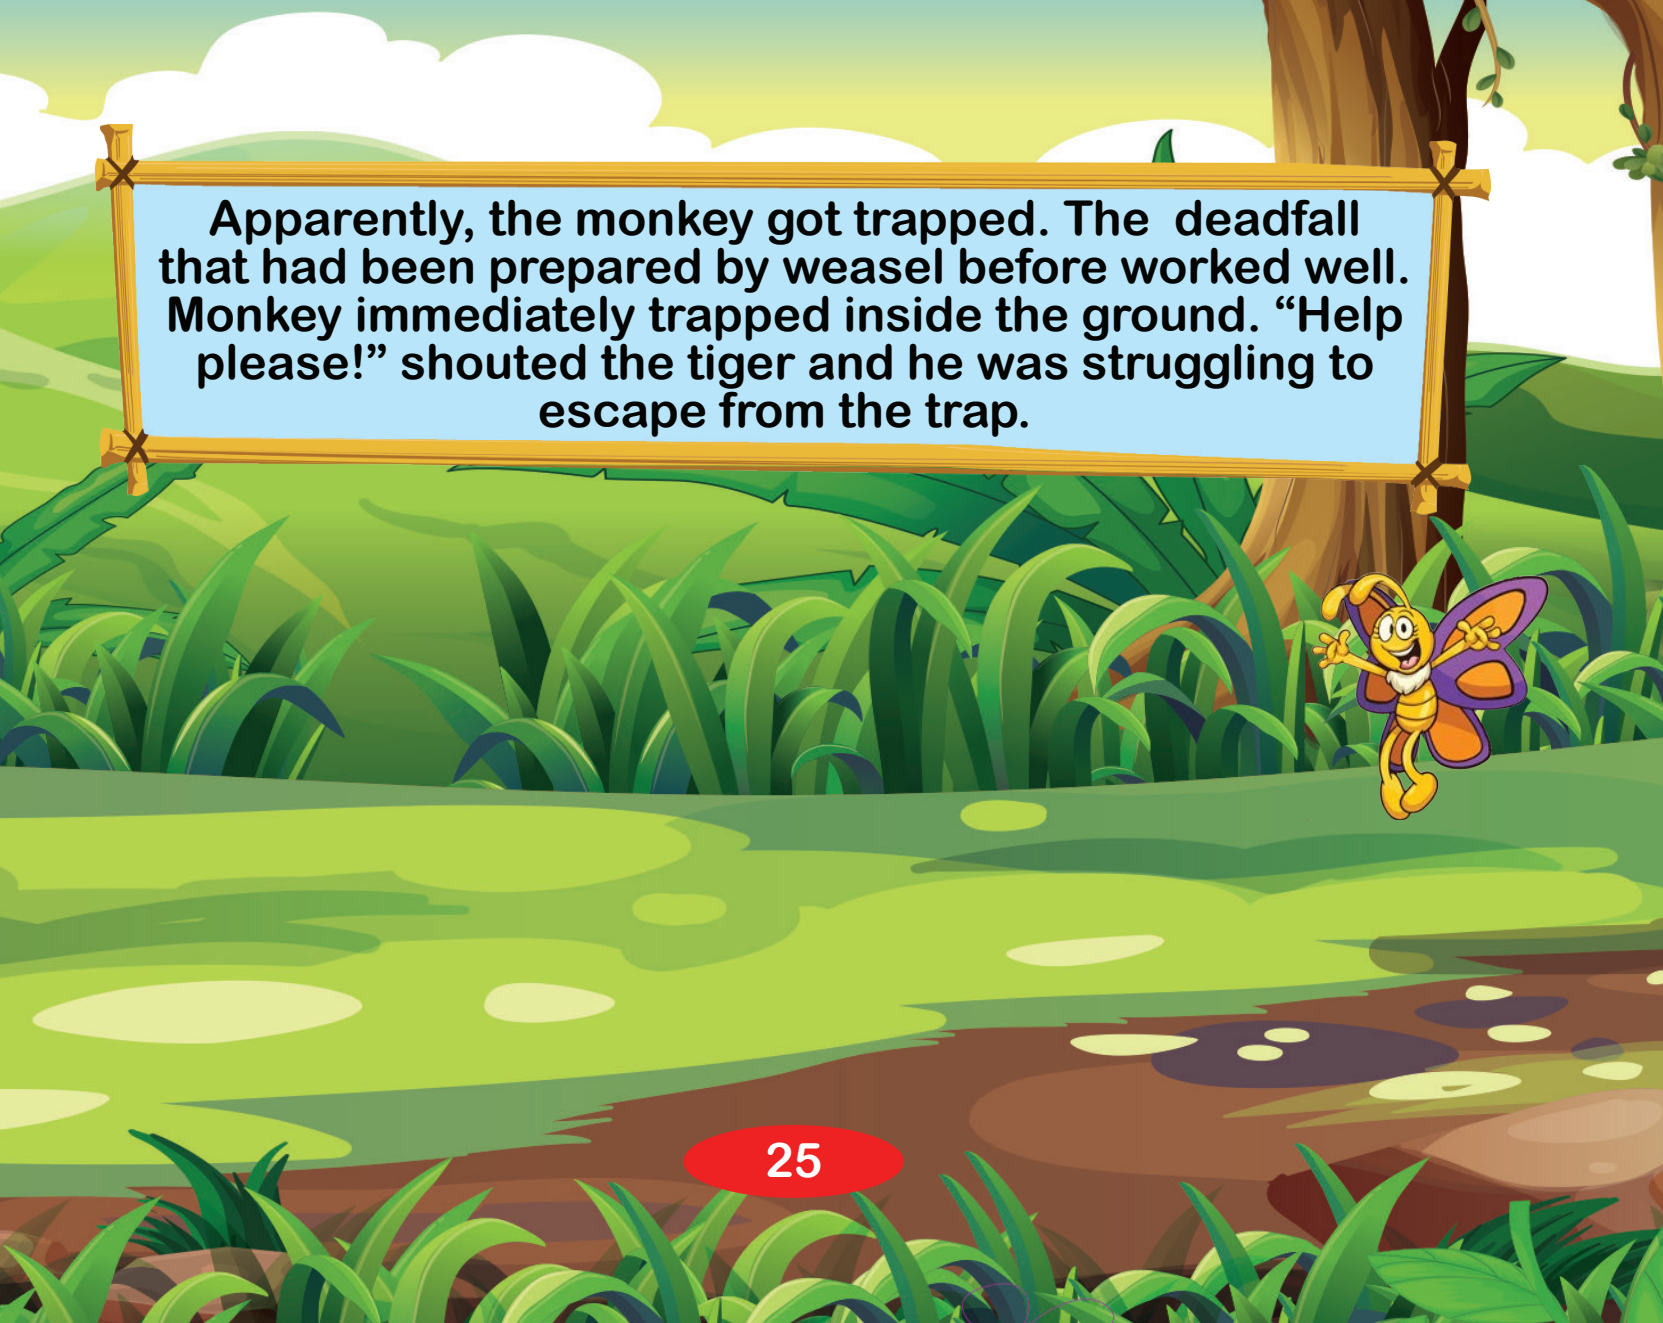

Inside the jungle, there were a bunch of monkey's favourite food. With his greedy, he took his favourite food instantly.

Ternyata si kera kena jebakan yang sudah disiapkan si musang, dia pun langsung terperosok ke dalam lubang tanah. “Tolong... tolong,” si kera berteriak, sambil berjuang keras agar bisa keluar dari perangkap itu.

Apparently, the monkey got trapped. The deadfall that had been prepared by weasel before worked well. Monkey immediately trapped inside the ground. “Help please!” shouted the tiger and he was struggling to escape from the trap.

Si musang dan binatang lainnya yang mengikuti dari belakang tanpa diketahui si kera, senang melihat si kera terjebak karena ulahnya yang tamak. Mereka pun meninggalkan si kera yang terkena perangkap itu.

The weasel and other animals who followed from behind were happy to see the greedy monkey trapped. They decided to leave the trapped monkey.
