Di suatu pagi, seekor semut bertemu dengan seekor ulat. Si semut yang suka mengejek timbul sifat usilnya. Si semut berkata kalau dia baru pertama kali bertemu hewan yang jelek dan tidak menarik seperti si ulat.

One sunny day, an ant used to meet a caterpillar. He had annoyed attitude to insult others. The ant said, it was my first time seeing ugly and uncharming animal like you caterpillar.

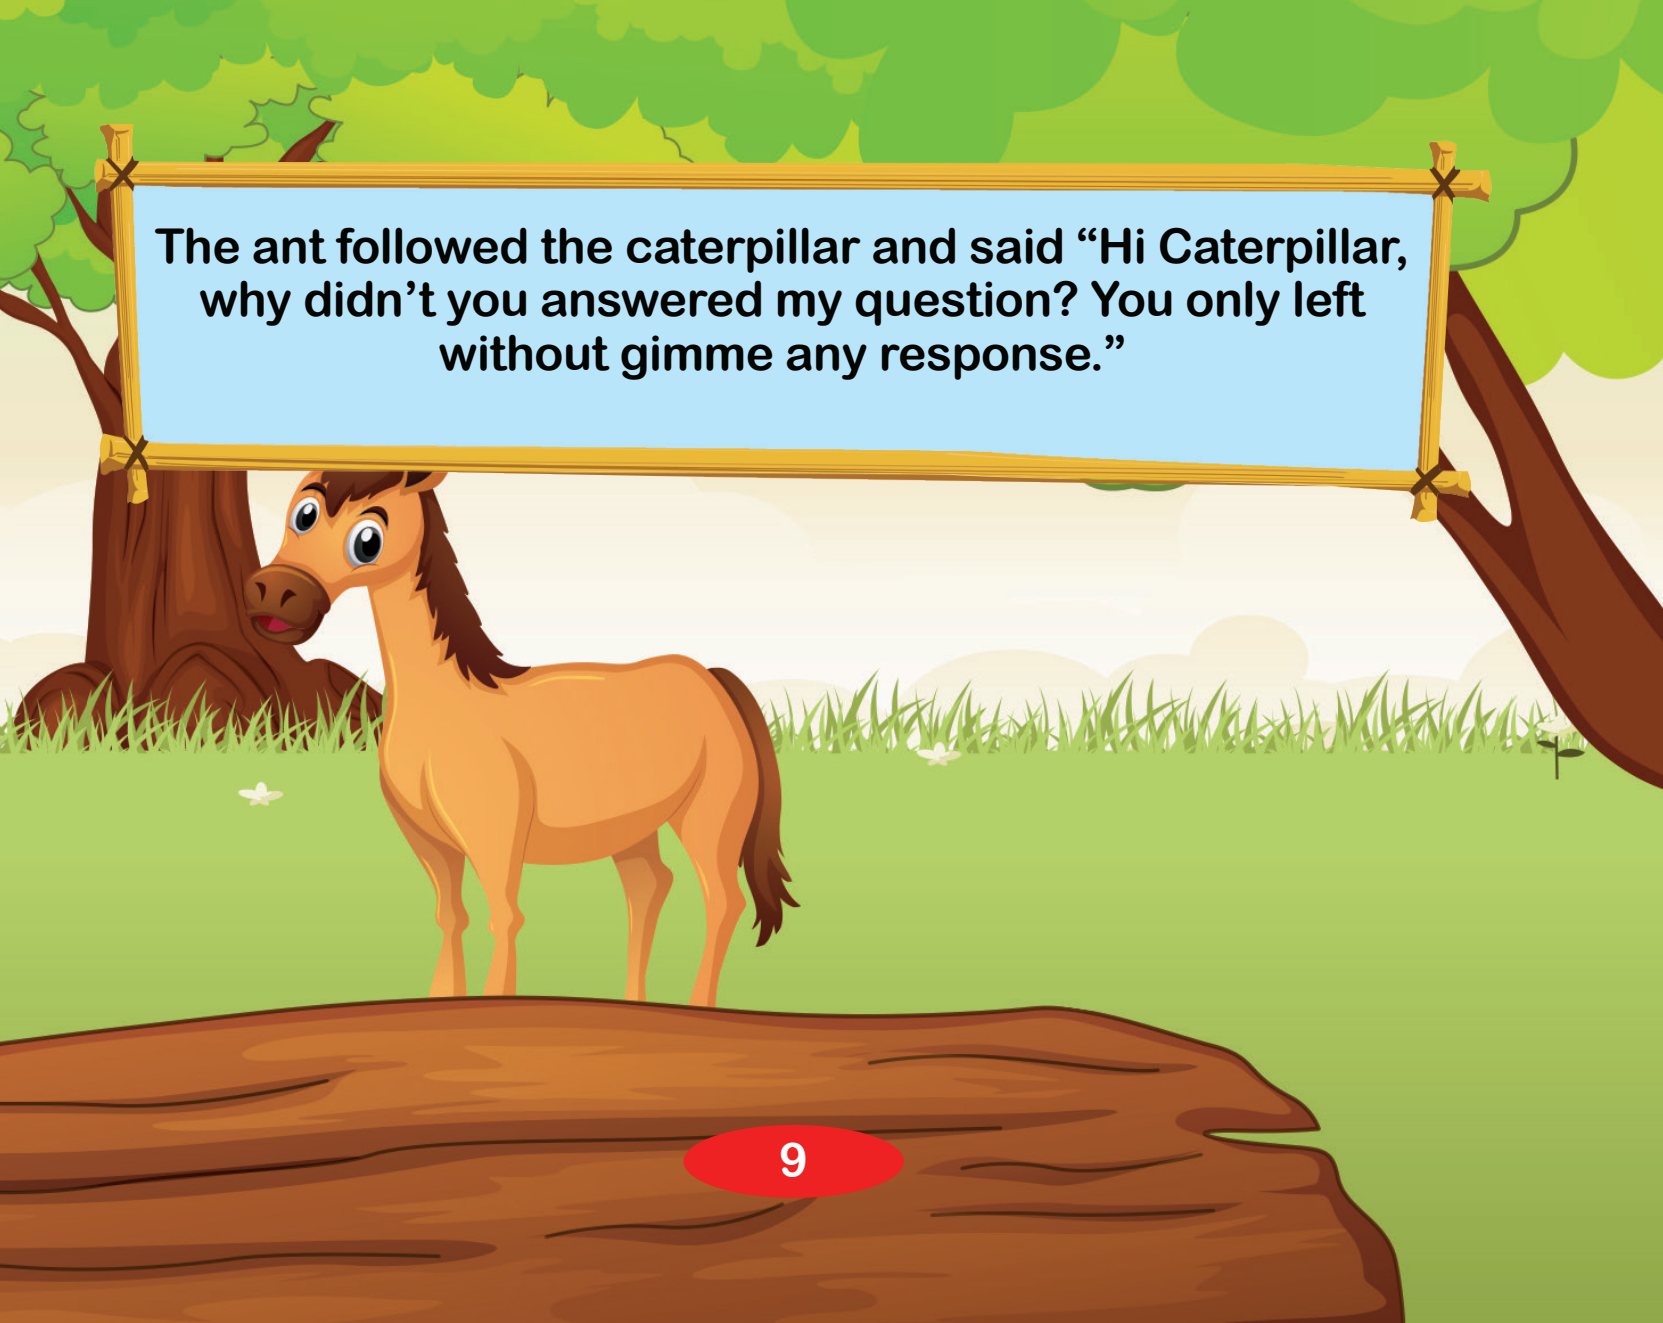

Si ulat hanya diam saja mendengar kata-kata si semut tadi. Dia sama sekali tidak menanggapi perkataan si semut. Si ulat pun melanjutkan langkahnya namun sepertinya si semut sengaja sekali ingin mengejek lagi.

The caterpillar was only silent to ant's statement. She didn't want to respond it and she continued walking and the ant really wanted to insult her again.

Si semut mengejar si ulat dan memberhentikannya.”Hey ulat, kenapa kau tidak jawab pertanyaanku tadi? Kau hanya pergi begitu saja tanpa menjawab sedikit pun,” kata si semut.

The ant followed the caterpillar and said “Hi Caterpillar, why didn’t you answered my question? You only left without gimme any response.”

Namun si ulat kembali tidak menjawab, dia kembali melangkahakan kakinya. Dan sampai akhirnya Si siput melihat kejadian itu dan berkata kepada si semut kalau sesama makhluk hidup tidak boleh saling mengejek. Tapi si semut malah tidak memedulikannya.

However the caterpillar didn't answered. She continued her journey. The snail saw the case and told to the ant "Every animal shouldn't insult each other," but the ant ignore it.

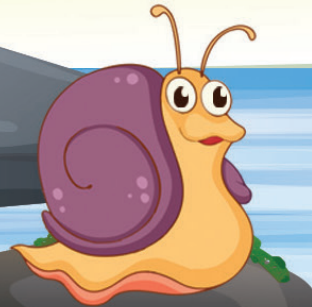

Singkat cerita, beberapa minggu kemudian. Tampak si semut sedang berjalan meniti bebatuan di tepian sungai. Karena ceroboh, si semut menginjak batu yang licin dan terjatuh ke Air sungai. “Tolooonng ... tolooooonng...!” teriak semut meminta pertolongan.

Several weeks again, the ant walked on the stone at riverside. He was slipped due to his careless. "Please heeeeeeeeeeeeeelp..." asked the ant.

Siput yang mendengar teriakan minta tolong itu pun langsung menghampiri. Akan tetapi, si siput tidak bisa berbuat apa-apa, karena si semut sudah terbawa arus ke tengah sungai. Si siput pun ikut berteriak minta tolong.

Snail heard the scream and he came immediately.
Unfortunately snail couldn't do anything because the ant had been drifted to middle river and the snail asked for help too.

Tiba-tiba, tampak dari kejauhan seekor kupu-kupu yang sangat cantik menghampiri si siput dan menanyakan apa yang terjadi. Si siput dengan cepat menjawab kalau si semut terbawa arus air sungai.

Suddenly, from the distance there was a stunning butterfly came towards the snail and asked what was going on. The snail referred to the river and said that the ant had been drifted in the riverflow.

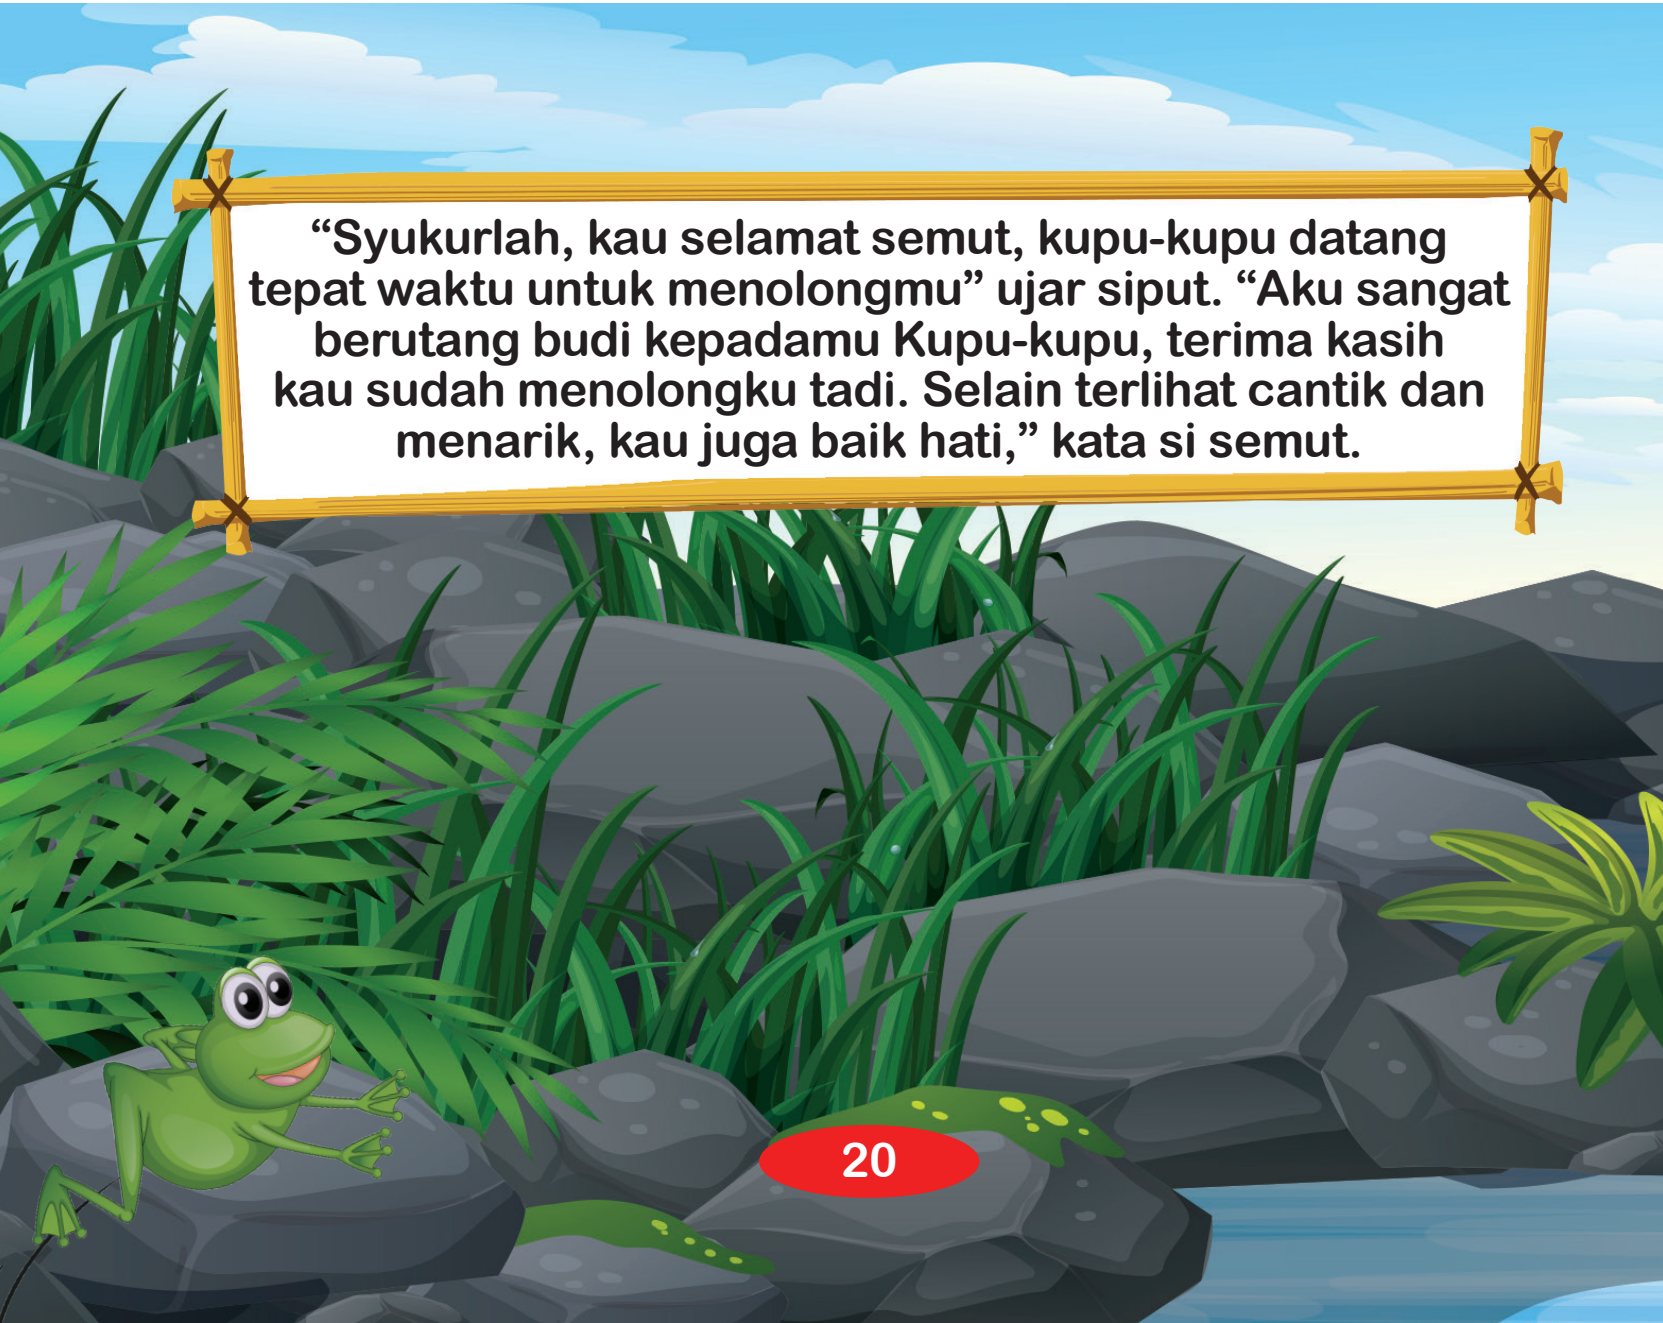

Melihat si semut hampir tenggelam, si kupu-kupu langsung mencari selebar daun dan ia letakkan di permukaan air sungai dekat si semut. Si semut pun dengan mudah menaiki daun tersebut.

The butterfly saw the ant almost sunk. She found a dry leave and she put it on the river close to the ant. The ant could easily escape and she brought it to riverside.

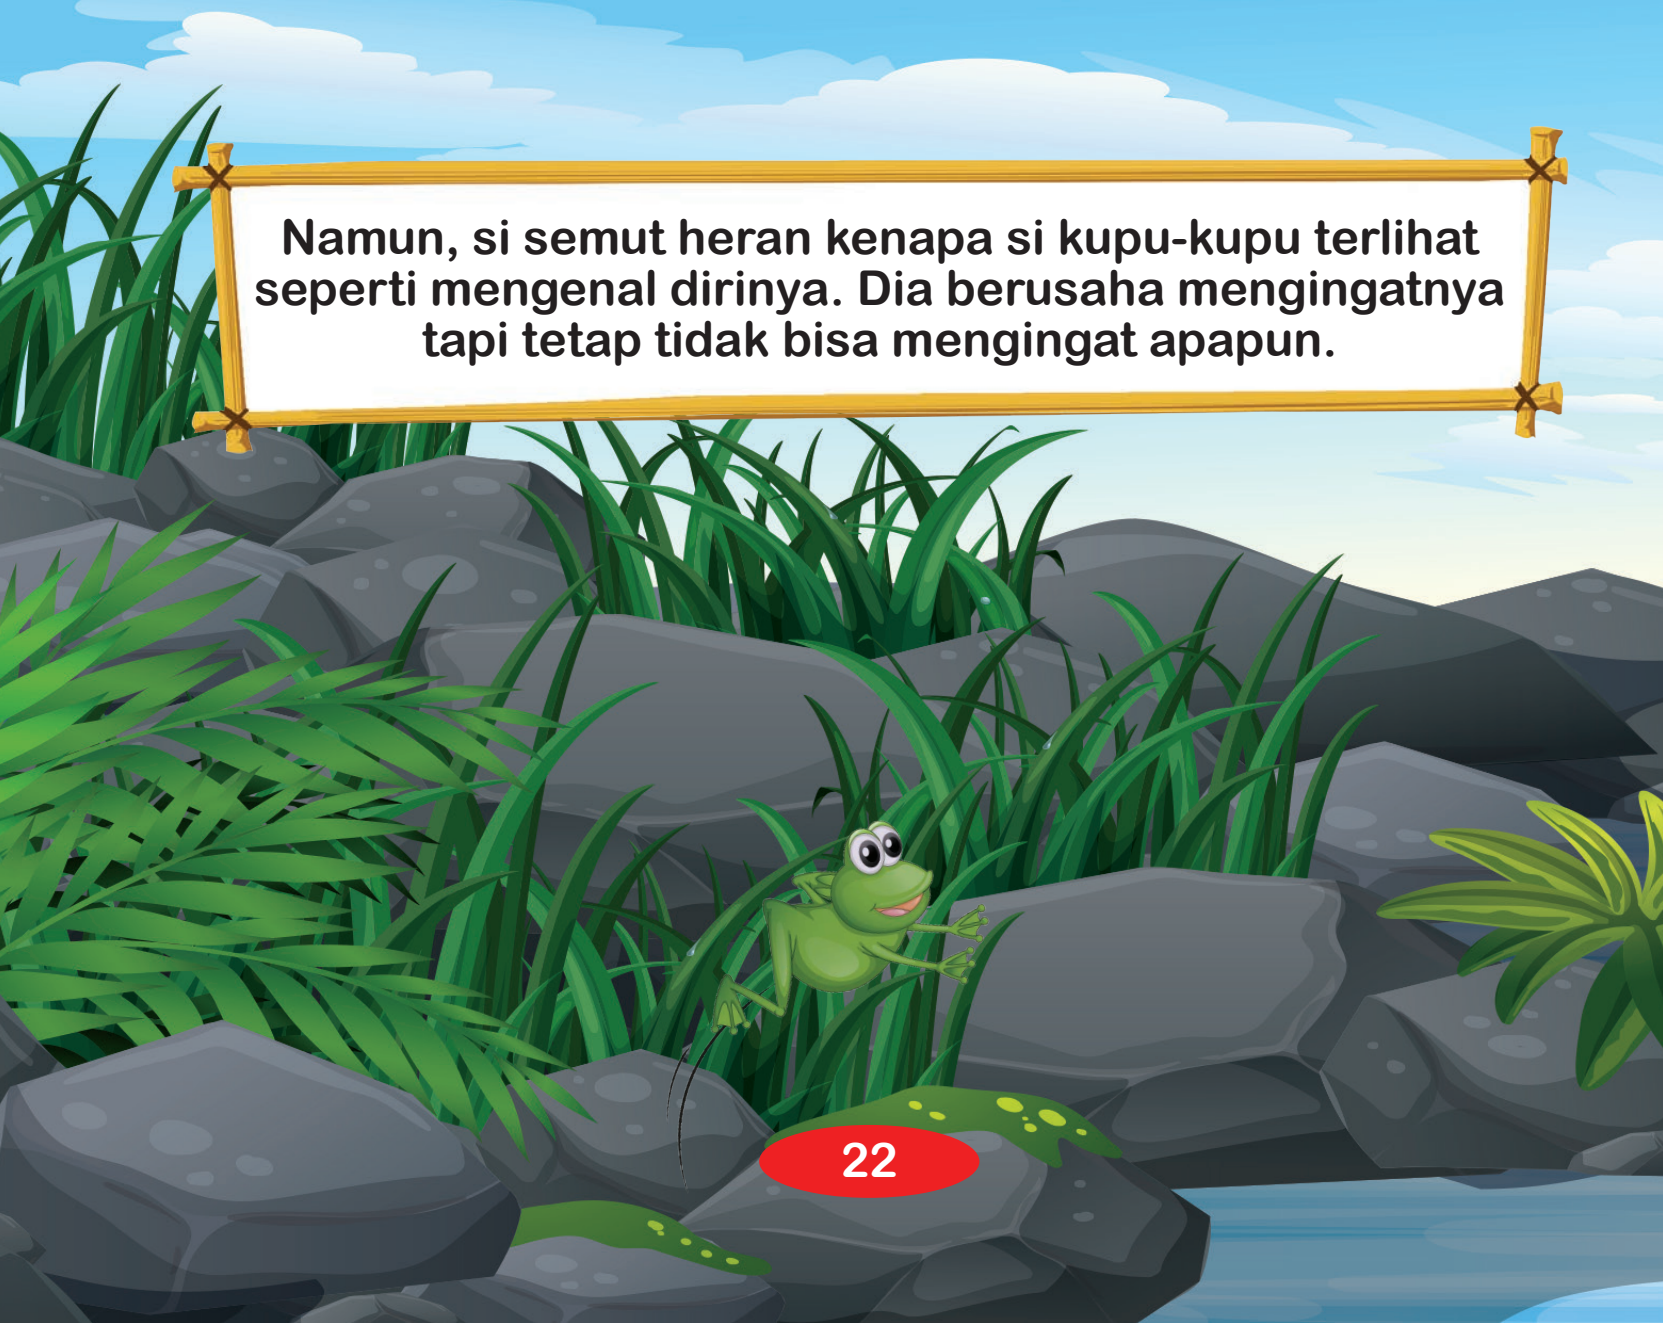

“Syukurlah, kau selamat semut, kupu-kupu datang tepat waktu untuk menolongmu” ujar siput. “Aku sangat berterang budi kepadamu Kupu-kupu, terima kasih kau sudah menolongku tadi. Selain terlihat cantik dan menarik, kau juga baik hati,” kata si semut.

“Fortunately, you were saved ant. The butterfly came to help you at the right time” said the snail. “I owe to your kindness the butterfly. Thank you that you had saved me before and you looked stunning and charming, you were kind too,” said the ant.

Namun, si semut heran kenapa si kupu-kupu terlihat seperti mengenal dirinya. Dia berusaha mengingatnya tapi tetap tidak bisa mengingat apapun.

But the ant was suspicious because the butterfly seemed recognize himself. He tried to remember but he couldn't remember anything.

"Sebenarnya kita saling mengenal jika kau masih mengingatnya, aku adalah ulat yang pernah kau ejek. Aku baru saja bermetamorfosa menjadi kupu-kupu," si kupu-kupu berkata seolah tahu apa yang ada di pikiran si semut.

“Actually we recognized each other if you remembered. I had been a caterpillar you used to mock. I had just changed became a butterfly” said the butterfly as if she knew what on ant’s mind was.

Betapa malunya si semut. Dulu si ulat yang sering diejeknya telah berubah menjadi seekor kupu-kupu yang sangat cantik dan indah. Si semut malu dan dalam hatinya berjanji untuk tidak mengejek siapapun lagi.

How shameful the ant when he heard butterfly statement. He used to insult the caterpillar now had changed become a marvelous butterfly. Moreover she had no revenge and the ant promised to not insulted anyone again.

PESAN MORAL

Tidak mengejek sesama makhluk dan saling menghargai termasuk sikap demokratis, karena pada dasarnya setiap makhluk adalah sama kedudukannya.
